

We would like to take this opportunity to thank you sincerely for the way in which you have looked after our affairs during this exciting time for us. You have always made yourself available to us to deal with any matters which arose even when they were not strictly of a legal nature i.e. connection of the cooker. On the day of completion, we were not at all surprised when we were told that you were on the end of the telephone to ensure that everything was in order before we signed the contract at the Notaire's office. This level of service ensured that no last minute complications had arisen. We were very grateful for that call.

Whilst French law remains a mystery to us, the best compliment paid was that via the French Notaire who commented that our English solicitor had been very thorough in the way in which she has looked after our affairs.

You came to us highly recommended and you have lived up to the recommendation. We will have no hesitation in contacting you again if we wish to purchase further land / property in France and would wholeheartedly recommend your services to anybody wishing to purchase a residential property in France.
